

The Other Side of the Sun: Fairy Stories Evelyn Sharp

What better thing can I say about this book except that it is written by Evelyn Sharp the author who writes fairy stories with a vigor, flair and flowing style that has endeared her to millions. These eight stories are different in that they are a bit longer than usual fairy stories, taking time to explore motivation, mood and plot; the characters seem to be real people not just two dimensional elements put there to round out the story. With titles like "The Hundreth Princess" and "The Tears of Princess Prunella" how can anyone resist poking their noses into them just a bit to see what happened to the other 99 princesses and why was a princess named Prunella.
